

LIMITED SCOPE REPRESENTATION AGREEMENT (“ATTORNEY AGREEMENT”)

Last Updated: July 23, 2018

This Limited Scope Representation Agreement (“Attorney Agreement”) governs your relationship with the independent immigration attorney (“Attorney”) who will review your immigration documents before they are delivered to you by Boundless Immigration Inc. (“Boundless”). Your relationship with Boundless is governed by the Terms of Use and Privacy Policy.

As part of its Services, Boundless has made arrangements with independent immigration attorneys to perform a limited review of immigration documents before they are delivered to Boundless customers. These attorneys are independent practitioners. They will exercise their independent judgment as attorneys, without influence or control by Boundless.

By agreeing to have an attorney review your immigration documents, you and the Attorney enter into a limited attorney-client relationship. The Attorney agrees to conduct a basic review of the immigration documents you have completed using the Boundless website, or that you provide directly to the Attorney. The Attorney agrees to provide, for a flat fee clearly disclosed to you prior to payment, the following services:

1. Reviewing the forms you have completed for errors, omissions and consistency, and reviewing the supporting documents for completeness and consistency with the forms prior to filing.
2. Answering questions about the forms and supporting documents that you have submitted for the Attorney’s review.

Upon the Attorney’s receipt of all or any portion of the flat fee, the funds are the property of the Attorney and will not be placed in a trust account. The fact that you have paid your fee in advance does not affect your right to terminate the attorney-client relationship. In the event that your relationship with the Attorney is terminated before the agreed upon legal services above have been completed, you may or may not have a right to a refund of a portion of the fee. In addition to the flat fee, the Attorney may also be compensated an additional amount by Boundless to ensure sufficient attorney time and resources will be available to serve Boundless' customers. You are not responsible for, and will not be charged, any such additional amount paid by Boundless to the Attorney. Boundless will not interfere with the Attorney's independence of professional judgment or with the attorney-client relationship.

The Attorney must act in your best interest and give you competent assistance. However, the Attorney's representation of you is limited to this basic review of documents described above, and no more. The Attorney will not perform any additional legal work for you, such as filing your documents or representing you in any proceeding before any court or government agency, including United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

You specifically agree that:

- The Attorney is relying entirely on the facts, information and documents you provide. The Attorney will not make any independent investigation of your facts or information, or the authenticity of any documents you provide. It is therefore extremely important that you are completely truthful as to any information you provide.
- The Attorney is not promising you a favorable result.
- The Attorney is not required to help you with any other part of your immigration needs or any other legal questions or problems you may have.
- The Attorney's representation of you ends when Boundless delivers your documents to you or when the Attorney advises against filing the immigration documents you selected.

CLIENT'S CONSENT

I have read this Limited Scope Representation Agreement and understand it. payment for the services of the Attorney (“Attorney Fee”). I agree to pay the Attorney Fee to the Attorney, and agree that the amount of the Attorney Fee may be taken from the purchase price I paid for the Services. I understand and agree that the Attorney may receive additional compensation from Boundless beyond the Attorney Fee, but that I am not responsible to pay any such additional compensation.
